JUDGMENT

It is declared that the Driver's Privacy Protection Act does not prohibit the City of Tallahassee and its contractor ACS State and Local Solutions, Inc. from disclosing red-light violation notices—or excerpts of the information they contain—in response to an otherwise valid public-records request.

By September 10, 2012, the City and ACS must produce to Federated copies of the requested violation notices or excerpts of the information they include in a form acceptable to the City, ACS, and Federated.
